

T2D1 PBL Part I: Apprenticeship in the Colonial Era Worksheet (30 pts, due: T2D3)

So what were young people like yourselves doing in the Colonial Era? Well, this activity will help you find out! To get started, check out the following link, and answer the questions (using complete sentences) below: <https://goo.gl/VToZFp>

Lastly, you will pick one specific trade that seems interesting to you at this link: <https://goo.gl/Qt9tRz> Answer the final questions based on what you learn!

1. In the Introduction section, a description of what an apprenticeship involved is given. Summarize what you learned in 2+ sentences:
2. How long did these apprenticeships last? At what ages did young adults begin them?
3. What was an indenture of apprenticeship?
4. Who could become an apprentice? Give at least 2 different examples:
5. Summarize what life was like for apprentices; what type of work did they do? What hours did they work? Where did they sleep? Etc.

NAME _____ PERIOD / CLASS _____ DATE _____

6. Now, click the following link to pick a specific trade that looks interesting to you: <https://goo.gl/Qt9tRz> .
Which one did you pick? Explain why you chose it:

7. What was life like for the trade that you chose? Mention 3 things that you learned:

8. Pick a different trade; Tell me which you chose, and what was life like for the new trade that you chose?
Mention 3 things that you learned:

9. Out of these two trades, which would you prefer? Explain why!